900 Degrees Neapolitan Pizzeria Announces Opening of Third Location in Portsmouth, New Hampshire

Portsmouth, NH – 900 Degrees Neapolitan Pizzeria announced today the opening of its newest restaurant in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, marking the company's third location in the state. Located at 2454 Lafayette Road, the seacoast location is currently expected to open in the first week of May.

At 900 Degrees Neapolitan Pizzeria, pizzas are made using an authentic dough recipe and local, farm-fresh ingredients in a wood-fired brick oven. The restaurant embodies the rich tradition of true Neapolitan pizza making. In addition to pizza, menu offerings include a wide variety of appetizers, soups, fresh salads, house-made pasta dishes, sandwiches, desserts and more.

"I am excited and proud to open a third location in the incredible city of Portsmouth," said Priscilla Lane Rondeau, owner. "It has been my dream to bring 900 Degrees Neapolitan Pizzeria to the seacoast of which I am so fond, and it is an honor to be a part of the city's vibrant culinary culture. I look forward to this next adventure and appreciate the overwhelming support from our existing customers."

The new Portsmouth location will offer a similar menu to its sister restaurants located in Manchester and Epping, New Hampshire. Guests can enjoy lunch, happy hour and dinner seven days a week and this location will also offer al fresco dining during warm weather months. The restaurant will also offer weekly and monthly promotions, including happy hour specials, 2-for-1 Tuesday and Unwind Wednesday.

As part of the opening preparations, 900 Degrees Neapolitan Pizzeria is currently accepting applications for all positions to support the Portsmouth location. Interested individuals can apply through the website www.900degrees.com/900-degrees-llc-employment-application/.

ABOUT 900 DEGREES NEAPOLITAN PIZZERIA

900 Degrees Neapolitan Pizzeria was founded on the art of producing pizza as it was originally made in Naples, Italy. Utilizing a wood-fired brick oven, an authentic dough recipe, and the freshest ingredients, 900 Degrees delivers the rich tradition of true Neapolitan pizza making to each and every guest. First opening its doors in November 2007 in the historic mills of Manchester, NH, 900 Degrees has expanded to open two additional New Hampshire-based locations in Epping, which opened in October 2013, and Portsmouth, which will be opening in May 2018. Since its inception, 900 Degrees has been committed to sustainability and has received numerous certifications and acknowledgements for its environmental practices.
